Program—Truman Women’s Volleyball—Ben Briney, Head Coach, shared information about Truman Women’s Volleyball Program. Ben has been involved with Truman volleyball for thirteen years. This is his ninth season as the head coach. In 2014, Ben earned the Great Lakes Valley Conference (GLVC) Coach of the Year honors after leading the Bulldogs to the Midwest region’s No. 1 seed and a 29-4 overall record. Truman’s Women’s Volleyball has won the GLVC title two of the last four years that Truman has been in the GLVC. Winning the Conference last year earned the Bulldogs their 15th NCAA Tournament appearance in the last 17 seasons in addition to their 26th-straight seasons with a winning record.

World Polio Day Event—Thank you to all in the Kirksville Rotary Clubs who cooperatively produced a World Polio Day program last night (October 24) at the ATSU Mehegan Classroom. Rotarians Bill King, Larry Whitney, Jeff Romine, Matt Eichor, and Ray Klinginsmith were on the program. Many other Rotarians assisted to provide an excellent event.
