Happy New Year!

Chade Shorten and Carter Brooks Templeton on Their Service Experiences in Washington D.C.

Matt Eichor introduced our speakers today. Chade Shorten is a native of Kirksville and the daughter of Gina and Craig Shorten. She is a senior at Truman State University with a Major in Communication and a Minor in Political Science. Chade has worked as a field organizer in Reno, Nevada for Hillary Clinton, interned for the Missouri House Minority Leader in Jefferson City and served as a press intern for Claire McCaskill in Washington D.C. Her day started at 7:30 a.m. when she opened the office. Her desk was about 500 feet from where Comey was testifying. Chade also spoke about the senator’s baseball tragedy last summer and the bipartisanship response to it. After graduation this coming May, Chade plans to find a job working on a political campaign for the 2018 election cycle.

Carter “Brooks” Templeton, also from Kirksville, is the son of Heidi and Scott Templeton. He is currently a junior at Truman State University majoring in Pre-Law/Communication. Brooks’ service includes serving as a student representative on the Truman State University Board of Governors. Last year he completed an internship at K-Life Ministries in Kirksville. This past summer he completed an internship at the Eno Center for Transportation in Washington, DC., a great experience working for a non-profit think tank for safer roads. Brooks will be working in the Missouri State Capitol in Jefferson City next semester in the Missouri State Treasurer’s office.
